Introduction: More to Hoshana Rabbah

There are various Scriptures that convey something so dynamic about Messiah, yet so finite in who they could possibly be speaking of, that there is no other possibility outside of His identity being that of Yeshua.

One such Scripture is Haggai 2:9

Hag 2:9 "The glory of this new house will surpass that of the old," says Adonai-Tzva'ot, "and in this place I will grant shalom," says Adonai-Tzva'ot. "

Where the Prophet is told by Adonai that the glory of the new house (the second Temple) will surpass the glory of the old house (the first Temple)

Upon Solomon's completion of the construction of the first Temple and its dedication, the glory of Adonai filled this first house...

2Ch 7:1 When Shlomo had finished praying, fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of Adonai filled the house,

2Ch 7:2 so that the cohanim could not enter the house of Adonai; because the glory of Adonai filled Adonai's house.

2Ch 7:3 All the people of Isra'el saw when the fire came down, and the glory of Adonai was on the house; they bowed down with their faces to the ground on the flooring; prostrating themselves, they gave thanks to Adonai, "for he is good, for his grace continues forever."

2Ch 7:4 Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before Adonai.

Evidence that the glory of Adonai did indeed appear and reside in the Temple, further substantiating Haggai's prophecy.

But, the question now is, "how will the glory of the new house surpass the glory of the first house?"

The glory of Adonai filled the Temple, that is pretty significant. What could possibly surpass His presence?

A question that has been asked by many over the centuries, yet has already been answered. The one who said...

Mat 12:41 The people of Ninveh will stand up at the Judgment with this generation and condemn it, for they turned from their sins to God when Yonah preached, but what is here now is greater than Yonah.

Hopefully, many of you will remember this from my Yom Kippur message.

Someone greater than one of Adonai's Prophets is here among you...

The same one who conveyed to the man born blind and ultimately healed by Yeshua in Yochanan 9...

Joh 9:35 Yeshua heard that they had thrown the man out. He found him and said, "Do you trust in the Son of Man?"

Joh 9:36 "Sir," he answered, "tell me who he is, so that I can trust in him."

Joh 9:37 Yeshua said to him, "You have seen him. In fact, he's the one speaking with you now."

Joh 9:38 "Lord, I trust!" he said, and he kneeled down in front of him.

Joh 9:39 Yeshua said, "It is to judge that I came into this world, so that those who do not see might see, and those who do see might become blind."

Joh 9:40 Some of the P'rushim nearby heard this and said to him, "So we're blind too, are we?"

Joh 9:41 Yeshua answered them, "If you were blind, you would not be guilty of sin. But since you still say, 'We see,' your guilt remains.

When did this occur?

During Sukkot.

And, on what day of Sukkot did this occur?

Hoshana Rabbah – the last great day.

We know this how?

Because the account actually begins in Yochanan 7:37:

Joh 7:37 Now on the last day of the festival, Hoshana Rabbah, Yeshua stood and cried out,...

But unfortunately, much is lost in translation. Most translations present John 7:37 as...

Joh 7:37 In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.

Yet, when we look at the Jewishness of this verse, it conveys so much more than is typically understood by those who read it and are unfamiliar with its Jewishness.

The words, "Please save us!", (coming from Psalm 118) led to the day being called Hoshana Rabbah, the Great Hosanna.

This prayer had Messianic overtones, as is seen from its use when Yeshua made his triumphal entry into Yerushalayim a few days before his execution (Mat 21:9, Mar 11:9-10). It was also a prayer for salvation from sin, for Hoshana Rabbah was understood to be the absolutely final chance to have one's sins for the year forgiven. On

Rosh-Hashanah one asks to "be inscribed in the Book of Life" (see Rev 20:12), and on Yom-Kippur one hopes to have that inscription "sealed"; yet in Jewish tradition there remained opportunity for forgiveness up to Hoshana Rabbah.

In addition,

"A connection between the possession of the Ruach ha-Kodesh and religious joy, is found in the ceremony of water drawing, Simchat Beit-HaSho'evah ["feast of water-drawing"], on the festival of Sukkot. The Mishnah said that he who had never seen this ceremony, which was accompanied by dancing, singing and music (Sukkot 5:4), had never seen true joy (Sukkot 5:1). Yet this was also considered a ceremony in which the participants, as it were, drew inspiration from the Holy Spirit itself, which can only be possessed by those whose hearts are full of religious joy (Jerusalem Talmud, Sukkot 5:1, 55a)." (Encyclopedia Judaica 14:365)

Yet, Yeshua's interaction with this man, was one of several significant moments on the last day of Sukkot...

The last great day of this Sukkot Yeshua attended started off...

Joh 7:37 Now on the last day of the festival, Hoshana Rabbah, Yeshua stood and cried out, "If anyone is thirsty, let him keep coming to me and drinking!"

Joh 7:38 Whoever puts his trust in me, as the Scripture says, rivers of living water will flow from his inmost being!"

Joh 7:39 (Now he said this about the Spirit, whom those who trusted in him were to receive later — the Spirit had not yet been given, because Yeshua had not yet been glorified.)

Why is this significant?...

On the last day of the festival, Hoshana Rabbah, literally, "on the last day, the great, of the festival." Greek megalê ("great") corresponds to Hebrew rabbah.

The seventh, last day of Sukkot was its climax. Throughout the seven days of the festival a special cohen had carried water in a gold pitcher from the Pool of Shiloach (Siloam) to be poured into a basin at the foot of the altar by the cohen hagadol. It symbolized prayer for rain, which begins the next day, on Sh'mini Atzeret; and it also pointed toward the outpouring of the Ruach HaKodesh on the people of Israel.

The rabbis associated this custom with Isa 12:3, "With joy shall you draw water from the wells of salvation." On the seventh day the water pouring was accompanied by cohanim blowing gold trumpets, L'vi'im singing sacred songs, and ordinary people waving their lulavs and chanting the Hallel (Psalms 113-118), which includes in its closing verses:

"Adonai, please save us! [Hebrew Hoshia' na or Hoshana]

Adonai, please prosper us!

Blessed is he who comes in the name of Adonai!

We have blessed you out of the house of Adonai.

God is Adonai, and he has given us light."

(Psa 118:25-27)

Yeshua is in essence stating, "this water that is poured out for you during this time by the Cohen, is not the same water that comes from me...the Living Water.

Another moment happened on this "Last Great Day" of Sukkot...and in relation to this prayer from Psalm 118...

Joh 8:12 Yeshua spoke to them again: "I am the light of the world; whoever follows me will never walk in darkness but will have the light which gives life."

He has given us light...His light.

According to the Mishna:

At the Temple..."there were four golden menorahs with four golden bowls at the top of each, and four ladders each leading to a bowl. Four strong young cohanim would climb up with pitchers each holding 9 liters of oil which they would pour into the bowls. From the worn-out drawers and girdles of the cohanim they made wicks, and with them they lit the menorahs; and there was not a courtyard in Jerusalem that was not lit up by the light of the Beit-HaSho'evah [festivities]. Pious men and men of good deeds would dance around [the menorahs] with lit torches in their hands, singing songs and praises, while the Levites played harps, lyres, cymbals, trumpets and innumerable other musical instruments...." (Sukkah 5:2-4)

The Gemara on this passage says the menorahs were 75 feet high (Sukkah 52b). Thus, the water-drawing festival was accompanied by bright lights and dancing-for Sukkot is specifically a festival of rejoicing. As before, when the water from Shiloach was being poured and Yeshua used the occasion to invite people to come to him and drink, now he uses the fact that the feast is accompanied by a blaze of light to announce, "I am the light of the world," adding a promise with implications for both this life and eternity.

Two of Yeshua's most significant teachings – The Light of the World and Living Water were conveyed on the same day of the Feast of Sukkot – Hoshana Rabbah

So, let's go back to Solomon for a moment...When did Solomon's dedication occur?

2Ch 7:8 So Shlomo celebrated the festival at that time for seven days, together with all Isra'el, an enormous gathering; [they had come all the way] from the entrance of Hamat to the Vadi [of Egypt].

It was likely the glory of Adonai appeared on the first day of Sukkot, after the dedication of the Temple.

And I have just conveyed to you Yeshua's presence in the Temple on the last day of Sukkot.

Adonai's glory appeared on the first day of Sukkot.

Yeshua's presence resided at the Temple on the last day of Sukkot – Hoshana Rabbah.

Going back to our verse from Haggai...

Hag 2:9 "The glory of this new house will surpass that of the old," says Adonai-Tzva'ot, "and in this place I will grant shalom," says Adonai-Tzva'ot.' "

There is no other documented evidence in the historical Jewish writings prior to the Temple's destruction in 70 CE that convey any significant event that would validate Haggai 2:9 as being fulfilled.

We have evidence that the glory of Adonai was present in the first Temple, yet there is nothing further that conveys a greater glory being present in the second Temple.

So the problem, if there is not account of such a moment, then there is an enormous problem. This promise made by Adonai can never be realized...There is no second house anymore, the new house in relation to the first house (Solomon's Temple).

Wait...

We do have something that validates a greater glory was experienced in the second house. Yochanan's account, his witness testimony, not to mention all the people who witnessed these events happen.

Hopefully you recall a message from a few weeks ago, whereby I conveyed Yeshua's immersion of Tisha B'av was 40 years prior to the exact day of the Temple's destruction.

What if I were to tell you that Yeshua's time in the Temple is also recognized by the Prophet to the exact day...

Hag 2:1 On the twenty-first day of the seventh month, this word of Adonai came through Haggai the prophet:

What is the 21st day of the Seventh Month?

Hoshana Rabbah

On Hoshana Rabbah, Adonai conveys to the Prophet Haggai...

Hag 2:2 "Speak now to Z'rubavel the son of Sh'alti'el, governor of Y'hudah, and to Y'hoshua the son of Y'hotzadak, the cohen hagadol, and to the rest of the people; say this to them:

Hag 2:3 ' "Who among you is left that saw this house in its former glory? And how does it look to you now? It seems like nothing to you, doesn't it?"

Hag 2:4 Nevertheless, Z'rubavel, take courage now," says Adonai; "and take courage, Y'hoshua the son of Y'hotzadak, the cohen hagadol; and take courage, all you people of the land," says Adonai; "and get to work! For I am with you," says Adonai-Tzva'ot.

Hag 2:5 "This is in keeping with the word that I promised in a covenant with you when you came out of Egypt, and my Spirit remains with you, so don't be afraid!"

Hag 2:6 For this is what Adonai-Tzva'ot says: "It won't be long before one more time I will shake the heavens and the earth, the sea and the dry land;

Hag 2:7 and I will shake all the nations, so that the treasures of all the nations will flow in; and I will fill this house with glory," says Adonai-Tzva'ot.

Hag 2:8 "The silver is mine, and the gold is mine," says Adonai-Tzva'ot.

I believe Yochanan in 7:37 specifically referenced Hoshana Rabbah in order to connect Haggai's Prophecy thus validating Adonai's promise...

Hag 2:9 "The glory of this new house will surpass that of the old," says Adonai-Tzva'ot, "and in this place I will grant shalom," says Adonai-Tzva'ot.' "

The very day this prophecy is given to Haggai, the 21st day of the Seventh month – Hoshana Rabbah, Yeshua conveys His most powerful messages, thus providing the people shalom, peace on Hoshana Rabbah.
